NOTES OF THE COURTS

New Term Opens Under the County Act.

Judge Lindsay presided yesterday at the opening of the first term of the Circuit Court under the county act. Atorney A. S. Humphreys, counsel for Ah On, immediately contended that the whole term had lapsed as it was not opened on Monday.

Judge Robinson approved the reports yesterday morning of the trustees of the C. R. Bishop trust and the report of Master M. T. Simonton was ordered filed.

The petition for the sale of lands of the R. W. Holt estate was demurred to yesterday by Owen J. Holt and Chris J. Holt on the ground that there are no debts to be met.

The decree awarding a divorce to Lulu from Charles Johnson was signed yesterday by Judge Robinson. The court awarded the custody of the six children to the husband.

The even numbered cases on the civil calendar will be called today by Judge Robinson. The trial jury for the term has been summoned for 10 o'clock.

A special term of the Federal Court may be necessary to try Mori Takizo at Honolulu for murder, owing to the questioning of the naturalization of jurors by Circuit Judges.

Criminal trials in the Circuit Court will commence next Monday. The Circuit Court grand jury was to have been charged yesterday, but J. Love, C. H. Atherton, J. R. Aheong, N. Fernandez, J. Richards, Chris Willis and H. Weinrich were excused and a special venire of 12 was ordered to be drawn for today.

Four charges of embezzlement against former Land Commissioner E. S. Boyd were not pressed yesterday by County Attorney Douthitt. Boyd is now serving a term.

Ex-Justice A. Perry and H. G. Middleitch will defend Takada in his second trial for murder. They were appointed yesterday by Judge Robinson.

The Supreme Court will sit today to hear the Kanealii, Kauni, election cases.

Judge Lindsay will devote the rest of the month to hearing equity and chambers matters. The Parker ranch case will be before him.

GEAR LIBEL SUIT.

In the libel suit of A. V. Gear against the Hawaiian Gazette Co., Judge Robinson sustained the demurrer of the defendant on the ground that there was no libel and dismissed the action. A. G. M. Robertson for the plaintiff and J. J. Dunne for the defendant.

NORMAL SCHOOL

OPENS ON MONDAY

The Normal School will open next Monday. This announcement was made yesterday by Superintendent of Public Instruction Davis after consultation with Superintendent of Public Works C. S. Holloway.

There was delay on account of the finishing and acceptance of the new building.

All the other schools opened yesterday with good attendance assured, though no reports as to actual numbers were made. In the afternoon Superintendent Davis' office was thronged with pupils getting their books and by tomorrow everything will be in full swing.

RELATIONS HAVE BECOME STRAINED

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 23.—Relations between President Roosevelt and Frank P. Sargent, commissioner general of immigration, are becoming so strained as a result of the modified rules for the admission of Chinese that it is regarded as doubtful whether Mr. Sargent can remain in office if further changes are made.

Not only Mr. Sargent, but almost all other officials or the department of commerce and labor are strongly opposed to further concessions to the Chinese, and they favor a rigid enforcement of the existing exclusion laws.

Advices received here indicate that President Roosevelt is determined to make such changes in the rules governing the admission of Chinese as will prevent the humiliating experiences reported, and will permit all high Chinese to visit the United States the same as citizens or other foreign countries.

The President, it is said, is not influenced to take this action by the existing boycott, but in the expectation of modifying further regulations. He has thus far been prevented from taking the intended action by the protests of Commissioner Sargent.
